MISSION STATEMENT

The Rainbow Project Child & Family Counseling & Resource Clinic serves families of diverse cultural, economic, traditional & nontraditional backgrounds.

Services are Intended to...

- Help break the often generational cycle of child abuse, neglect, & domestic violence, including services to families with patterns which put members at risk for abuse or future mental health problems
- Promote positive change & mental health within families, including building, strengthening, & supporting healthy parent/child relationships
- Advocate for the mental health needs & support of families & children in the community
